Meet the School Council & Global Neighbours Representatives 2022-23

School Council—Working hard to be a voice for their classes & to make improvements for the school:

- Y1: Edie & Samuel
- Y2: Maddie & Jacob
- Y3: Harry & Elizabeth
- Y4: Sophia & Charlie
- Y5: Betsy & Charlie
- Y6: Seb & Kharis

Working to enhance our interactions with each other as well as develop our understanding of how to care for the world that we live in:

- Y1: Juliette & William
- Y2: Kit & Mia
- Y3: Ollie & Eden
- Y4: Theo & Annabelle
- Y5: Ciara & Finlay
- Y6: Alex & Ruby

Mrs Leggitt asked for volunteers for the CREW Council & we now have an excellent team from years 3-6.

We know that they'll all do a great job!

Could you support children over lunchtime as a Lunchtime Supervisor?

Great with children? Got time on your hands?

Please get in touch for an application form

A great LTS has:

- a strong sense of responsibility for children's safety.
- To be able encourage good behaviour, such as sharing
- good listening skills and the ability to comfort children who are upset
- have a firm but fair approach.
- the ability to stay calm.
- good communication skills.
- the ability to work as part of a team.
- You may deal with problems such as cuts, bruises and grazes

Working hours are: 12:00 until 13:10
